NEGROES LYNCHED BY DULUTH MOB

MINNESOTA CITY IN GRIP OF MOB THAT HANGS THREE NEGROES FOR ASSAULTING WHITE GIRL.

By the Associated Press

DULUTH, Minn., June 16.—Virtually normal conditions prevailed today on the Duluth business streets over which a mob of 5,000 persons surged last night, sweeping the police from power and seizing and lynching three negroes held in connection with an attack on a 17-year-old white girl.

When two companies of Minnesota national guards reached here at an early hour, after a special train trip from St. Paul, they found only a damaged police station and littered streets as evidence of the mob activities.

For at least two hours the mob ruled, only relinquishing its powers after the negroes had been lynched. Six negroes had been arrested in connection with the attack on the girl, which took place on a circus ground Monday night. The mob held a mock trial, holding three guilty and acquitting the others, who today were still in the hands of the police. The three convicted negroes were hanged within a block and a half of the police station.

Another Mob Reported Busy.

DULUTH, Minn., June 16.—A report received here early today from Virginia, Minn., was to the effect that ten negroes were being rushed in automobiles to St. Paul, guarded by deputy sheriffs, to be placed in the county jail for protection. A score of automobiles carrying members of last night's mob has been reported on the way to Virginia from Duluth in an effort to seize other negroes emloyed in a circus, whom they believe might have taken part in the attack on the white girl.

Administration supporters are in control of the gathering and resolutions strongly endorsing President Wilson and the League of Nations have been framed for adoption.

FREELING FAILS TO FILE FOR SENATOR

By News Special Service.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 16.—Public duty arising from the Red River boundary controversy is named by Attorney General Freeling as his reason for not filing as a candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator in a statement issued today. Freeling announced last fall that he would be a candidate. The statement made today says in part:" I did not me as a candidate for United States senator in the democratic primary August third. Owing to the pressure of duties in connection with attorney general's department. I have not been permitted to make a campaign, and as the supreme court has fixed August 15 as the limit within which Oklahoma and Texas may present proof as to their contentions on the law questions involved in the boundary controversy, it will be utterly impossible to make such a compaign as I wish and deem necessary."

"I deeply regret, for it was my earnest desire and intention to present my views and opinions on the questions which must be solved in the recontruction of our country and the world.

"This situation is the more deeply regretted for the reason that so far no one is advocating the things in which I believe."

FERRIS FLAYS THE G. O. P. AT DURANT

DURANT, June 15.—(Special)—Charging the republican party with contemplated war on the federal reserve act in an effort to cut down the volume of money in favor of money changers, Scott Ferris, Vice-chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee tonight declared that the republican platform estranges the west and makes virtually certain a democratic victory in the east. Ferris stigmatized the republican nominees as dangerous reactionaries.

Ferris spoke at the Bryan county court house, in behalf of his candidacy for the United States senatorial nomination. He had an audience of more than 2,000. He is scheduled to speak to the students of the Southeastern Normal School tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. He was introduced by former District Judge A. H. Ferguson. Before taking up the issues of his own campaign, Ferris scored the republican national ticket and platform saying: "The republicans decry in their platform the unpreparedness of the United States at the time war was declared with Germany in 1917. This means that if they are given power they will insist on a larger standing army. They will be militaristic. They will demand compulsory military training in time of peace. This is obnoxious to our American institutions. It will lose the republicans 28 western states just as they lost them in 1916.

SOLDIERS ACCUSED OF KILLING WOMAN

By the Associated Press

ROCKFORD, June 16.—No arrests have been made in connection with the fatal shooting at Camp Grant, near here, last night, of Mrs. Maude Louisa Moss, wife of Capt. LeRoy Moss, camp utilities officer. Intelligence officers say they hope to have a solution of the tragedy late today.

Mrs. Moss was shot while riding with a party of friends in an automobile driven by her husband. Captain Moss and Colonel Arnold of Chicago, father of Mrs. Moss, continue to hold to the theory that the shooting was accidental. The discovery of an empty shell from a 45 caliber soldier's pistol at a point where the shot was fired is accepted as proof that a soldier fired the shot.

ROCKFORD, Ill., June 16.—Five soldiers of Camp Grant, near here, were being sought today in connection with the shooting to death of Mrs. Maud Lucile Moss, wife of Captain Le Roy Moss, camp utilities officer and daughter of Colonel Arnold, pioneer electrical engineer.

It was reported early today some of the men were believed surrounded. The entire camp was seeking to find if Mrs. Moss was murdered or accidently shot.

J. ALBERT CRANE LIKES HORTICULTURE STUDY

J. Albert Crane, local shoe repairman, is something besides a tradesman. He believes in feeding the mind on more than merely what one occupation furnishes. His motto is, "Get ready to do the thing before you do it." One of his favorite avocations is the study of horticulture.

Mr. Crane developed a likelihood for the above named study when only twelve years of age. Since that time it has been his pleasure at all times to widen out his scope of knowledge on the subject. Now it is his pleasure to help all he can in interesting others in that line of work. He says that in growing the right kind of trees we are helping ourselves and also those who follow after us.

Mr. Crane is familiar with the various methods of budding and grafting trees and says that the rudiments of these practices can be taught to boys in a short while. In reference to boys, one of his statements is, "Put the boys in orchards instead of reformatories." He believes that if the boys are encouraged along this line that many will like it and their efforts will rebound to the good of the community in which they live.

He intends to give an illustrated lecture on the streets of Ada when occasion presents itself.

MOST HISTORIC NEWSPAPER WAS SHOWN US TODAY

Mrs. Fred Clinkenbeard brought into the News office yesterday a very historical newspaper. It was the Ulster County Gazette published at Kingston, New York on January 4, 1800. The paper has four small pages and is quite differently printed from the way newspapers are now-a-days.

The paper contains an account of the death of George Washington and some of the speeches and writings of John Adams. The writings about Washington show unmistakable signs of love for the Father of His Country.

An amusing advertisement in the paper offers for sale a half interest in a saw mill and, immediately below a stout negro woman slave.

The paper also shows that humanity has not changed in the main from what it was years ago, for, would you believe it, a man publishes a notice that he will no longer honor any debts contracted by his once dearly devoted wife.

Another thing of note about the paper is the fact that business houses run advertisements. It only goes to prove that some merchants over 100 years ago were more modern in that respect than some of our twentieth century merchants.

Mrs. Clinkenbeard also displayed some three and five cent pieces dated 1863. They are specimens of famous "shin plasters" read about in history.

"STATES RIGHTS" LOOM UP AS PROMINENT PUBLIC ISSUE

WASHINGTON.—The old issue of states' rights threatens to loom prominently as a public issue in the near future. The fight against the Eighteenth Constitutional Amendment and the Volstead Act promises to be based largely on the rights of the states to legislate for themselves. If the fight is carried out to the extent planned by the Constitutional Liberty League, the states' rights issue will be more prominent than it has been at any time since the days of the Civil War.

Several state governments have already instituted suits before the Supreme Court of the United States to determine the legality of methods by which the Eighteenth Amendment is said to have been adopted. The right of making the amendment is also questioned in these suits. The league has already taken advantage of this state sentiment and has established branches in several commonwealths.

Those who are back of the Constitutional Liberty League hold that the Eighteenth Amendment is absolutely destructive of personal rights and liberties which the Constitution guarantees to the people. With this amendment as an opening wedge, the way is laid open, it is pointed out, for other amendments of a varied character which might revolutionize the Constitution itself.

Fred C. Spaulding, executive secretary of the league, who is extending its organization into every state, says he bases his expectations of a large nation-wide membership on the fact that there are great numbers of men who voted against licensing the sale of intoxicants in their own communities and yet resent bitterly an attempt to deprive them of the right to vote for or against such questions as this.

SELLS SAYS M'ADOO WILL BE NOMINATED

By News' Special Service:

FORT WORTH, Texas, June 16—McAdoo will be the nominee of the democratic party for the presidency, and the democrats will win the race, is the confident prediction of Cato Sells, Commissioner of Indian Affairs of the Department of the Interior. Mr. Sells is in Fort Worth Monday attending the state democratic executive committee meeting. Mr. Sells expressed himself as highly gratified with the republican ticket. He says that Harding and Coolidge ably represent the reactionary tendencies of the party, and are the logical choice of the party.

Mr. Sells came from Washington to Cornell college, Mount Vernon, Iowa, where a degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon him. He is on his way to Baylor university at Waco where the same degree will be conferred on him Tuesday.

The defeat of Senator Johnson was likened by Mr. Sells to the old story of the spider and the fly.

He said the conservative element conceded just enough to Johnson and Borah to shut them off on the league of nations proposition and then proceeded to shut down on Johnson, eventually nominating Harding.

The platform, he says, deals vapidly with all issues. Hoover would have been the party's strongest candidate, he said.

The republicans maneuvered him out of the race when they got him to say he would not accept the democratic nomination, as all they wanted was to make sure the democrats could not put him up.

NORMAN MACK WANTS WET PLANK FOR DEMOS.

By News' Special Service:

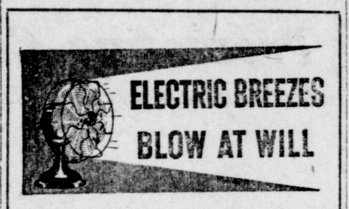

CHICAGO, June 14.—Norman E. Mack, who stopped off here on his way to the democratic national convention at San Francisco, said today that he believed the democrats would put a light-wines-and-beer plank in their platform.

"There is one way we can beat the republicans easily," said Mr. Mack. "The league of nations, the high cost of living and everything else will be overshadowed if the democrats have courage to make a 'wet' platform, something the republicans did not have. I know that Mr. Bryan will probably control the resolutions committee against a 'wet' platform plank, but the delegates in the convention will have the last say on the platform, and I believe they will insist on a damp plank at least."

Mr. Mack thinks that William G. McAdoo and Governor Cox of Ohio have the best chances for the democratic presidential nomination.

MAY ASK CONGRESS TO REDUCE TARIFF

WASHINGTON, June 16—The republican platform statement that it is impossible to outline a tariff program at the present time because of unsettled trade conditions was declared today to be in line with the findings of federal tariff commission experts that the United States may be tending in the direction of free trade.

While the platform declaration favors the time-honored principle of protection, the prediction is made that strong pressure will be placed on congress in favor of lowering tariff.

The pressuer will come, it was predicted, from business interests which always before have insisted on protection.

The reasons for the change are described by William S. Culbertson, member of the tariff commission.

No Fear of Foreign Market.

"In many manufacturing lines the fear of foreign competition has vanished," according to Culbertson. "Some manufacturers ask nothing but an equal start with all comers. Foreign markets have ceased to be an afterthought with many producers and have become vital to their prosperity. At the same time, a taste for American goods has developed among foreign buyers.

"It does not seem surprising to us to find men interested in foreign securities, shipping and the export trade in favor of the freer exchange of goods with foreign nations.

"To the person taught in the American school of high protetcion it is disconcerting at first to have manufacturers indifferent to the tariff or even advocating a lowering of it on their goods. This has come out because certain of our industries have expanded beyond the needs of the domestic market. They have established branch factories abroad.

"They regard free raw material and free foodstuffs as more important than high protection on their products. They are willing to meet foreign competition in the home market if concessions in the American tariff will result in concessions on the tariffs of foreign countries.

"In other words, some of our industries—particularly those producing large quantities of standardized products—have become worldwide in their operations and, under such conditions, freer trade relations are in their interest."

Exclusive Tariffs Past.

Culbertson draws the conclusion that "the age of exclusive and prohibitive general tariffs has passed, but that is a very different thing from concluding that we are about to adopt the policy of free trade."

"Opposed to the powerful manufacturers who have become indifferent to high tariffs are many manufacturers, little interested in foreign trade, who regard the home market as the basis of their prosperity and want it protected," Culbertson says.

"The new industries will also claim all the privileges of 'infant industries.' Strong support for high tariff duties will in all probability come from our agricultural and cattle-raising interests.

"As long as we were a great exporter of foodstuffs, the tariff on such products was largely nominal, since prices were fixed in the international market. But conditions are changing. The growth of manufacturing and of city population is rapidly absorbing the products of our farms and ranches.

"We may expect soon to become dependent on foreign countries for a part of our supply. Under such conditions a tariff on food products will become a real value to the producer. It is likely, therefore, that the demand of manufacturers for free foodstuffs and raw materials will meet with opposition."

RUSSIANS ATTACK POLISH FORCES

WARSAW, June 16.—The Bolsheviki are pouring into the Kiev region, backed by the greatest number of divisions the Poles have ever faced, according to reports received tonight. The Poles are withdrawing their main forces.

The Bolsheviks are entering the Kiev district from the south through territory first overrun by the cavalry of General Budenny. Opposite Kiev the Bolsheviki have encountered difficulties in crossing the Dnieper, owing mainly to the fact that the bridges have been destroyed by the Poles.

Heavy fighting is reported at various points in the region, the Poles giving up ground only where they are outnumbered.

The Bolshevik concentration for the recapture of Kiev has been in progress for a month.

Thirty-three divisions have been identified in the concentration thru captured prisoners.

It is known also that there are other divisions which have not yet been identified.

From various parts of the front recently German hand grenade throwers have been captured and also a number of orders written in German. Some of these Germans were brought up against the Poles after the defeat of General Denekine.

Americans Believed Safe.

The last word from the American Red Cross workers was that they would evacuate Kiev with the Poles. The Americans had several auttomobiles and it is believed here that the Americans are safe even if the railroads have been cut.

The prewar Polish population of Kiev was 70,000, but when the Poles took the city it was 20,000, many of whom were women and children. These latter, the Polish government has planned to bring to Warsaw with the assistance of the Red Cross. At last accounts the transfer of the refugees has not started.

The Bolsheviki, it developed today, launched an attack in Polesia, designed to aid the soviet forces to cross the Dnieper in the region near the mouth of the Pripet in the Kiev drive. The new attack, however, was repulsed with heavy losses, according to Sunday's communique.

The statement issued by the war office announced that several battalions of Bolsheviki crossed the Dneiper near Glibovem. The Poles counter attacked, driving the Bolsheviki into the Dneiper in great confusion, 800 of them being drowned and about 100 taken prisoner.

The communique says that General Smigley's forces withdrew from Kiev for strategic reasons. It does not give the battle line, but states that heavy fighting is continuing.

BANKERS PLEASED BY CHICAGO ACTION

By News' Special Service:

NEW YORK, June 16. — Wall street went to business this morning in a fairly cheerful mind, the result of the republican nominatiions at Chicago. Before the market opened, however, the ogre of a split in the republican party with LaFollette as the head of the defecting element served to restrain any considerable enthusiasm in the purchase of stocks.

The professional element noting the absence of outside buying power and working on the old theory that the good news was out, offered securities in some volume, and succeeded in forcing declines throughout the list. The market was wholly professional and as such, called for little comment.

Call money opened and renewed at 8 per cent, declining to 7 per cent later in the day. A severe break in the price of silver in London carrying the quotations of 44.1d, equivalent of 77½c here, called further attention to the financial crisis through which the Orient apparently is passing.

The results of the Chicago convention, while highly surprising to bankers and brokers alike, was received nevertheless with considerable satisfaction. The bankers have insisted during the preliminary campaign of the several candidates that they were less interested in the party affiliations of the next president than in his being a man with a keen appreciation of the tremendous national and international economic problems which confront the country, and his willingness to listen to those qualified to speak authoritatively as to the solution of those problems. It was small wonder, then, that bankers generally expressed themselves as thoroughly pleased with the republican party's selection.

And it will be a long time before Wood and Lowden pay in advance for another presidential nomination.

It is now decidedly old-fashioned to say anything is dead as a door nail. The modern version is dead as Hiram Johnson.

The Tulsa World says that the Chicago platform is sane in some respects but fails to mention in what respects it is insane.

A careful review of the Chicago convention shows that the Roosevelt wing of the party got everything worth fighting for except the chairman, the platform and the nominees.

Ada lost her game with Chandler Sunday, their first defeat of the season. The team ought to have known better than to risk a game on the thirteenth of the month.

If it is an argument against Scott Ferris that he is defended by a man who has long been representing corporations, what will you say of Gore when he is defended by a man who has long been representing horsethieves?

If it is true as Bryan says that Owen and Meredith are the only two Democrats available for the presidency, it is high time for the party of Jefferson and Jackson to ask for a receiver.

After reading the red-labeled keynote of Senator Lodge it is not impossible that President Wilson will grant a full pardon to Eugene V. Debs. Why should a citizen of Ohio be kept in prison for making a speech that is mild compared with one made by a citizen of Massachusetts? If all men are equal, Debs should be pardoned.

In his speech at Ada Senator Gore warmly eulogized Tom McKeown and bitterly denounced Scott Ferris. Yet Tom and Scott have voted together on every important question before congress in four years. If one was right, both were right. If one was wrong, both were wrong. It is all a matter of politics, and if Tom McKeown were running against Gore, he would be denounced and Scott eulogized.

A short time ago we were told by a pastor of a church not so very far from Ada that he has been spending his Sunday afternoons preaching in country school houses. He said that on a recent Sunday he preached in a school house just four miles from his home town and that he was told by members of his congregation that that was the first sermon ever preached in that school house. He was also informed that eight year old children in his congregation had never before heard a sermon preached. That community was only four miles from a town of about 4,000 population. Comment on such a situation is unnecessary, but in view of the fact that nearly all of our ministers have been products of the rural districts and that the country church has long been the stronghold of Christianity, it is well for church people to consider this statement of facts.

According to Harlow's Weekly the Gore campaign is now in charge of Aldrich Blake, Dorset Carter and Jean P. Day. The treasurer of the campaign seems to be Thos. H. Owen, as he signs the checks sent out by the Gore headquarters. The presence of these men on Gore's board of strategy throws a brilliant light on this recent talk of corporation lawyers in politics. When Judge Stuart spoke for Ferris in Ada Saturday he was severely criticised as a corporation lawyer. Yet according to Harlow's, which has been extremely friendly to Gore throughout the campaign, Gore's entire management consists of men long identified with the corporations of the state. Dorset Carter has been the leading lobbyist for the interests for a dozen years. He lead the fight against the Workman's Compensation Law when the legislature was in session a year ago. He is the head of the coal operators of Oklahoma and engineered the fight against the coal diggers last winter. Tom Owen is an official in one of the biggest trust companies in the capital city. These men have as much right to participate in a political battle as any other citizen. But a campaign financed and managed by corporations has little call to criticise Judge Stuart who is supporting Scott Ferris. It was a fine tribute to Judge Stuart's argument tho, that no effort was made to answer his argument. The opposition followed the rule that has long prevailed in criimnal court: "When you have no case abuse opposing counsel."

Ardmoreite: The chairman of the republican national convention in Chicago shattered several tables and broke a number of gavels in his furious efforts to maintain order in the Coliseum. If the democrats aticipate any such difficulty, they might take advantage of his presence in San Francisco and hire Jack Dempsey as a side kick to the regular chairman.

Ardmoreite: Prior to the Dempsey-Willard championship prize-fight the Fourth of July last year a paper in Hammond, Ind., editorialized to the effect that fighters are always in trim shape until the hour of the bout; that it is not until the day after that the manager of the losing scrapper announces that his pugilist had not been well for six weeks, but that the statement was withheld for fear of discouraging the fighters' friends. Weakened thru stomach trouble is a favorite excuse; weakened by other indulgence in a slush fund might apply in the case of the defeated scrapper in the Chicago "Big Three' bout.

platform decrying the present large volume of money and the low purchasing power of the dollar, which attributes these conditions as the sole causes of the high cost of living, mean that they intend to cut down the volume of money. This will result in two things. First, war on the federal reserve act and second, a cutting down in the volume of money in the interest of the money changers, which will in effect double the indebtedness of every man now in debt.

"It will transform 40c cotton into 10c cotton. It will make $2.25 wheat worth 89c. Other farm products will suffer in proportion.

"The position of the republican party on labor will lose them the east. Their hostility to the volume of the circulatory medium will lose the farmers of the west.

"The republican party is getting ready to ride to a fall in 1920 just as they did in 1916. With the republican platform made as it is the democrats will have an easier victory than they had in 1916. All that the democrats need do is to use their heads and wits at San Francisco in order that success may be assured.

"The republican platform and the republican candidate are the last word in reactionary politics. The San Francisco convention should be progressive. The democrats should stan dtrue to the five million five hundred thousand farmers, to the twenty million toilers and square and fair with business. Then victory is ours."

NOVEL WAY TO USE STRIPED MATERIAL

By Eloise

Stripes and plaids are very fashionable this season. And do not think because you are tall and slender that you cannot wear that beautiful striped silk you saw the other day. There are many ways of making up striped goods which permit the tall woman to indulge in them. Striped novelty and sports silks and striped jersey silks are quite the most popular fabrics for summer frocks and suits. Here is a delightful model made of rose and white striped silk in a very unusual design.

The skirt is accordion pleated, a fad of the hour, and it is made with the stripes running horizontally. The blouse is a belted Russian affair. It is made with the stripes running the other way. The elbow sleeves have odd little cuffs and the neckline and peplum edge are finished with folds of the material corded and set on the bias. Here a gilet of the silk is worn, but one of those very dainty little lace vestees or crisp white organdy ones would be very charming for summer wear.

It's a Lie!

It being our honest belief that over fifty per cent of the people are in total ignorance of the real methods of cleaning employed by the artists of today, we write this ad as a measure of transmitting to you essential explanatory intelligence. Years ago a wily and sharp minded gentleman of Connecticutt bent his brains to the task of producing some lofty and high sounding name for a secret cleaning method. He must have been a man similar to the immortal Barnum to believe in the ability of that name to hum-bug the people. He wasn't far from right. The method of cleaning for which he is given credit for inventing is known today as "French Dry Cleaning." Well, we are willing to concede to him the glory of inventing that splendid name but never any credit for the discovery of a new cleaning method. Why? Simply because "French Dry Cleaning" is absolutely nothing more or less than the old-time, dependable means of cleaning with GASOLINE! And now about this steam cleaning? Ah, yes—that Steam Cleaning. Well, just ask some cleaner right quick what it means. If he doesn't tell you that it is nothing in the world but warm water and good soap it will be because you didn't ask him quick enough. There is positively only two methods of cleaning. They are with gasoline and water. Of course every proficient cleaner has secret chemical spotters, but spotting can't be expected to thoroughly clean a suit of clothes. The only way one Cleaner can be better than another is to understand those particular methods more precisely, to have more experience, have the PROPER MACHINERY to aid him in his work. The employees of our business boast an advantage on ALL THREE POINTS!

BAILEY'S NAME IS ON TEXAS BALLOT

By News Special Service.

FORT WORTH, Texas, June 15.—The state democratic executive committee this afternoon voted 16 to 4 to place the name of Joseph Weldon Bailey on the official ballots for the democratic primaries next month as a gubernatorial candidate. his action was taken after a long and, at times, heated discussion, participated in by members of the committee and by Luther Nich els, Bailey's campaign manager, and John J. Simmons, one of his closest friends and advisers.

The committee also voted unanimously, to place upon the ballots the question of resubmission of the home ownership amendment which was defeated by a small majority last year. This action was taken upon request of Governor Hobby and M. H. Wolfe, chairman of the committee. The petitions said in effect that the slight defeat last year was due to lack of understanding of the measure. Fort Worth was chosen for the August State convention.

The executive committee met at 2:15 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, giving more than two hours to discussion of the Bailey question. A delegation of Bailey men was present, sitting apart from the committee, and consisting of Luther Nickels, John J. Simmons, Bob Barker, John C. Penn of Gorman, Levi Pressley, Theo Mack, W. L. Sargent, former state senator Scott Woodward and others. Other visitors at the committee meeting were Governor Hobby, Cato Sells, federal commissioner of Indian Affairs, Raiload Commissioner Earle B. Mayfield, T. N. Jones, of Tyler, W. T. Pace of Dallas, J. W. Mahan, campaign manager for Lynch Davidson, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, Pat O'Keefe of Dallas and others.

Members of the committee present or represented by proxy were: Sam H. Smelser of Texarkana, L. W. Davidson of Mount Vernon, A. W. Neville of Paris, Scott Fulton of Van Alstyne, J. D. Cottrell of Plano, Edwin Hobby of Dallas, Knox Henderson of Athens, Joe F. Cavitt of McGregor, Dr. W. H. Cummings of Franklin, Will N. Foster of Conroe, by A. S. Moody, proxy; John W. Gaines of Bay City, L. A. Machamel of Bellville, by Luther Nickels, proxy; R. E. Huff of Wichita Falls, D. C. Giddings of Brenham, by John J. Simmons, proxy; F. W. Hill of Austin, J. D. Jackson of Alpine, J. B. Daniels of Temple by John Davis, proxy; A. L. Davis of San Marcos, by Dr. B. A. Copas, proxy; Harry Tom King of Abilene; A. S. Moody of Houston, secretary, and M. H. Wolfe of Dallas, chairman.

Names of Candidates

The principal purpose of the meeting, as provided by law, was the certification to the secretary of state of the names of all properly qualifying candidates for nominations by the democratic party for state offices. The state ballot will present to the voters the following names:

For Governor—Joseph Weldon Bailey of Cooke county, B. F. Looney of Hunt county, Pat M. Neff of McLennan county, and R. E. Thomason of El Paso county.

For Lieutenant Governor—I. W. Culp of Bell county, Lynch Davidson of Harris county, R. B. Humphrey of Dallas county, W. A. Johnson of Hall county, J. C. McNealus of Dallas county, and W. T. Pace of Dallas county.

Attorney General—C. M. Cureton of Bosque county, incumbent.

State Treasurer—John W. Baker of Crosby county, incumbent.

Presiding Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals—W. L. Davidson of Travis county, incumbent, and F. B. Martin of Gregg county.

Associate Justice, Supreme Court—William E. Hawkins, incumbent, and W. M. Key of Travis county, and William Pierson of Hunt county.

Commissioner of Agriculture—Sam H. Dixon of Harris county and George B. Terrell of Cherokee county.

Railroad Commissioner—Earle B. Mayfield of Bosque county, incumbent, and John L. Andrews of Dallas county.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—Annie Webb Blanton of Denton county, incumbent and J. M. Carlisle of Nueces couty.

Land Commissioner—J. T. Robison of Morris county, incumbent.

Comptroller—S. H. Goodlet of Travis county, Lon A. Smith of Henderson county, and Mark L. Wiginton of Hill county, incumbent.

When consideration of candidates for state offices was begun, governor first, Chairman Wolfe announced that he had received several protests as to Bailey's candidacy. He was asked to state the reasons cited, which he gave as alleged non-residence and the charge that Bailey was not a democrat. Upon inquiry, he explained that Bailey's application was in due form. R. E. Huff of Wichita Falls moved that his name be placed on the ballot, his motion being seconded.

Bailey's Eligibility.

Judge John W. Gaines of Bay City was first to oppose placing Bailey's name on the ticket and led the discusion throughout. He said that, to him, the insurmountable objection was the law passed by the legislature just after the Ferguson campaign, providing that the state executive committee shall not place on the ballot the name of any candidate who is ineligible. Judge Gaines maintained that Bailey was clearly ineligible because a non-resident, and said he could not vote to violate the law. All members who voted to place his name on the ticket would be amenable to the law, he said, explaining that it would be a misdemeanor so to vote, knowing that Bailey was disqualified.

J. D. Cottrell of Plano read the law and held that the district courts offered recourse for anyone who wanted to stop the placing of Bailey's name on the ticket, and said the committee was not possessed of judicial functions to decide whether or not Bailey was eligible, though he thought he was disqualified.

H. S. Moran of Weatherford, who said he had opposed Bailey for years and been the object of some of Bailey's bitterest attacks, advocated placing his name on the ticket.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui. . .

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-134

—tempting tang of lemons Ward's LEMON-CRUSH

Have you ever noticed the cloudy appearance of Orange-Crush and Lemon-Crush while enjoying these rare-flavored drinks?

The reason for this cloudiness is also the reason for the unequaled deliciousness of Orange-Crush and Lemon-Crush—for it is caused by the uniform distribution throughout the drinks of thousands of minute particles of the actual fruit oil pressed from freshly picked oranges and lemons.

The interesting process which has made this possible was perfected five years ago by N. C. Ward, and is exclusive with Orange-Crush Company. It marks one of the greatest steps forward ever taken in the preparation of soft drinks, for it brings to you, without preservatives, the pure, delightful flavors which have made oranges and lemons the favorite fruits in every home. The cloudiness is your guarantee of genuineness, flavor and quality.

The booklet, "The Story of Ward's Orange-Crush and Lemon-Crush," gives full details regarding the making of these drinks. It shows how delicate flavors are obtained by combining the fruit oils with purest granulated sugar and citric acid—the natural acid of oranges and lemons.

Send for this free booklet today. You will better understand why Orange-Crush and Lemon-Crush enjoy the largest sale of any fruit-flavored drinks in the world.

Wild Bee Family Find Summer Home On Lady's Porch

The best bee story of the year is reported to the Evening News by Judge H. J. Brown. He states that for several years he has observed bees working among the flowers along 17th street and Rennie and that yesterday he located their habitat. The winged gatherers of honey had found a pillar on the porch of Mrs. Ivy McMillan and had entered the pillar thru a crevice at the top and made their home on the lady's front porch.

Judge Brown says that it is a full sized swarm and that they are living up to the reputation of the bee family for industry. They are taking advantage of the fair weather to fill an eight foot pillar with honey before the cold days of winter arrive.

PITTSBURG ROPING CONTEST TO GO IN THE MOVIES

The Pathe Film Corporation will have two camera men at the Annual Picnic and Barbecue to be held at this place June 24, 25th and 26th, to "shoot" the performance.

Especial attention will be given to getting the riders and ropers in action. A number of celebrated ropers will be here for the purpose of assisting in the work.

A cattle cutting contest will be one feature of the morning entertainment. The entries for the riding and roping indicate that the sport will be better this year than it has been for several previous years. The boxing and wrestling at night is going to draw a good crowd.

Pittsburg's champion, H. A. Reid, who has not met defeat in five years will wrestle on the evening of the 24th and 25 and will box on the evening of the 26th, a ten round bout with the "Mystery Kid" of Ardmore.

The race track has been worked over and entries are being booked for the races. Some good horses are booked for this event.

Normal and Campus

By Shelby S. Bruce.

Some special numbers will be given at assembly on next Wednesday.

The "Old Man" talked to one of his heirs yesterday and will bless us Saturday.

Clara Judd will spend the week-end with relatives in Washington, Okla.

Grace Walker and Ona Douglas will spend the week-end with their people in Maud.

The old green-house has been moved and this adds much to the appearance of the building.

The "Old Man" will make his will on Saturday according to an announcement made by this mysterious person.

The entire faculty and student body totals even 1,000 this morning. This includes all people who are connected with the school.

The orchestra under the direction of Fred Schrieber is doing exceptionally well. They will take part in the various programs given at the Normal this term.

These warm mornings find many students on the lawns with their studies. This is a very good plan as they can enjoy fresh air and feel comfortable under the shade trees.

Rev. and Mrs. C. V. Dunn were visitors at the school yesterday. They attended the assembly and later Mrs. Dunn visited the Red Cross classes.

The Phia Beta line party at the American theatre last night was a success. The crowd enjoyed the pictures very much and afterwards had lunch at Mrs. Lands.

The Y. W. C. A. girls will go on a picnic tomorrow afternoon. Each person will take along a supply of "eats." It is planned to hold this affair at the city lake.

The class of commercial geography formed a picnic party to Byrd's Mill yesterday afternoon and had lunch. Quite a few were present and all enjoyed the occasion very much.

The Manual Training department are building several library and dressing tables which are very good. These boys spend the entire day in this work and deserve much credit for their efforts to make good.

The gym classes will make a hike to the city lake this afternoon and take lunch. The party will go in bathing and make boat rides during their stay at this popular place. They plan to leave the city at 6 o'clock.

A committee appointed by President Perkins for the organization of the various counties represented at the Normal met yesterday afternoon. A definite announcement will be made Tuesday relative to the date of several social affairs which will be given by these people.

The Home Economic classes visited the various houses near the Normal that are under construction yesterday afternoon. This is means of getting an idea as to the plans and make-up of a home. Miss Francisco has charge of this work.

Captain Frank S. Wyatt of Washington, D. C. will be here on the 22, 23 and 24th of this month for the purpose of instructing the student body in mass games. It was announced in the Normal notes yesterday that he would be here today. This information was incorrect. Captain Weir will address the assembly at the regular meeting date.

Work was started this morning on East Main on the citys' new water line. This line extends to the normal and is being laid on the south side of the street.

At the Ada Playhouses

American

Today at the American, William Fox presents William Russell in "Leave It To Me." What would you do if you had millions and didn't know what to do with them? Maybe you'd spend them foolishly, maybe wisely, but see what William Russell did with his in "Leave It To Me." Today is the last showing of Charlie Chaplin in "Behind the Screen." Good music and a cool theatre.

Liberty

Today we are showing an all feature bill. The Honeymoon Limited will present an entire change of program. Singers, dancers and comedians. On the screen we are presenting Wm. S. Hart in the "Narrow Trail." A truly western picture played as Hart can act them. It makes them worth your time when Hart pictures are shown. Music, cool theatre and an A-1 bill.

news of American Legion

(Norman Howard Post No. 76)

No jokes on home brew will be printed in this column.

Why don't Legionaire Vernon return the discharges? Get busy Vernon.

A chance to make some real money easy. Catch Bergdoll the millionaire draft dodger and receive his compliments and a hat full of rewards.

As the members of the various ex-military organizations call each other "comrades," we wonder if the Bolsheviki address fellow members comradically.

Legion members are again made happy by the appearance of the Legion weekly paper. From this date the paper will be received regularly. All ex-soldiers and sailors hold this paper in their highest esteem.

At a meeting in the City Hall last night of all members of this post who are to participate in the minstrel it was voted to postpone the affair until the early fall. Vacation time. Hot weather was the excuses offered.

We are hoping enough interest can be aroused by other organizations to back up the Legion proposed picnic on July 4th and 5th at the city lake. Such entertainments as music, boat races, swimming contests, speakers, dancing, boxing and wrestling are planned to be given on these days. Let the people of this city stand by the veterans.

How He Fooled 'Em

First Private—"Cooties never had any terrors for me in France."

Second Private—"Why not?"

First Private—"When they bothered me at night I went down to the river and took off my clothes, which I sprinkled with salt. The cooties ate the salt and became thirsty. When they went to the water to drink I picked up my clothes and ran."

He Told the World

Col. Blink (to orderly)—"I notice the marines about the post repeatedly using a peculiar expression. Wherever I go lately, I hear them say, 'I'll say it is'. What's the idea?"

Pvt. Smythe (formerly of Harvard Law School)—"Sir, the phrase you mention is usually spoken in affirmation or approval of some statement just uttered. The peculiar emphasis it imparts to a truism with which the speaker is heartily in accord has led to its colloquial adoption, I think. Is my explanation satisfactory, sir?"

"I'll say it is."

Dew in mystic haze,
Velvet sky and stilly lake,
Aglow with bonfire blaze.

Throbbing hearts of youth and maid,
Do ye now beware!
Of the moon path's luring web
And the June night's snare.

CHARLEY RAY GIVES OUT ADVICE FOR FISHERMEN

Charley Ray, Edgar Allen and Haskell Huddleston recently made a fishing trip to Rodke creek about nine miles distant from the city. Mr. Ray is a benevolent men and believes in letting humanity have the benefit of his errors. Therefore, he strongly urges that all who go to Rodke creek hungry for fish had better carry some of the objects of their quest with them if they expect to satisfy their hunger. Mr. Ray confidentially reports that after tramping some twenty miles, more or less, up and down Rodke looking for a famous haunt of the finny tribe, he returned footsore to the Double A Town with four fish each four inches long.

Roosevelt's Glasses

Ex-President Roosevelt was awkward and stupid as a boy until he suddenly discovered that he could not see as well as other boys.

He tells us that glasses changed his career.

Most backward children have defective eyesight. No boy or girl can do well in school who cannot see distinctly. With correctly fitted glasses nine out of every ten improve immediately in school work.

Success in school promises success in later life. Have your child's eyes examined at the first indication of trouble.

Yes! Who is this Speaking?

An instance that happened in our store last week reminded us of the maiden lady, who when asked over the telephone "Will you marry me?" replied, "Yes, who is this speaking?" A Stonewall man wanted more details about Spring Suits so he picked up his receiver and ordered our number. "Can you fit me in one of these Michaels Stern Suits you are advertising at 20 per cent discount" was his query.

"You bet we can" we shouted into the transmitter "who is this speaking, please?"

Makes little difference to this stock who is at the other end of the line. We have a size for every weight and wheel base.
